Standard Policy and Procedures

A person may not keep or maintain any chicks, chickens, geese, ducks, turkeys, pigeons, doves, squabs, or other fowl in an enclosed structure or building within eight (8) feet of the property line of any adjacent improved lot or parcel of land or in an unenclosed structure or open pen or run within fifteen (15) feet of such property line or, whether enclosed or unenclosed, within fifty (50) feet of any dwelling other than that occupied by such person.

A person may not keep or maintain any hare or hares, rabbit or rabbits, rat or rats, cavy or cavies, or other rodents in any structure, enclosed or unenclosed, within ten (10) feet of the property line of any adjoining improved lot or parcel of land or within forty (40) feet of any dwelling other than that occupied by such person.

A person may not keep or maintain in the city more than ten (10) "standard" chickens or ten (10) "bantam" chickens over the age of four (4) months. A "bantam" chicken is one which weighs less than thirty (30) ounces at maturity. A "standard" chicken is any chicken other than a "bantam" chicken as herein defined.

A person may not, other than where a limited use permit has been authorized pursuant to Chapter 5 of Title XVII for pigeon and dove keeping, keep or maintain in the city more than forty (40) adult pigeons or doves over the age of three (3) months and their young.

A person may not keep or maintain in the city more than ten (10) rabbits, hares, rats, or cavies over the age of eight (8) months, and the offspring of such rabbits, hares, rats, or cavies.

A person may not keep or maintain in the city more than ten (10) units of animals, fowls, or animals and fowls mentioned in this section, mixed or otherwise, except as hereinabove provided. It shall be unlawful for any person to keep or maintain in the city more than two (2) units of animals or fowls or animals and fowls mentioned in this Section as pets. For purposes of computation, each adult rabbit over the age of eight (8) months shall be considered as one (1) unit, each adult chicken over the age of four (4) months shall be considered one (1) unit, and four (4) adult pigeons or doves over the age of three (3) months shall be considered as one (1) unit.

NOTE: Subsequent annual renewal fees are $45 and are due and payable on the first day of January of each year. These fees are payable to the Humane Society of the Pikes Peak Region.
